NEW POR T; July 16.

The following Affair, which, at the Beginning, The following Affair, which, at the Beginning, feemed to indicate a tragical Issue, happened here last Monday, viz. Some Men belonging to his Majesty's Schooner St. John, then in this Harbout, commanded by Capt. Hill, had been guilty, several Days before, of some Irregularities in Town, of which Information was given by one conserned in the same, who had made his Escape, and being observed to be on a Wharf nearly opposite to her, a Boat, with some Men armed, came fite to her, a Boat, with some Men armed, came in Quelt of him, or, as is faid, to impress Men at Work on board a Vessel. But, whatever were their Motives for their coming ashore in that Manner, this is certain, that a fmart Skirmish was the Consequence, by which, it is said, the Schooner's Men were confiderably bruised, and very expediwent off, leaving their commanding Officer behind, who was immediately taken into Custody. The defensive Party, it is also said, received some slight Wounds. This Transaction, with the Men, who had been guilty of the Disorders, being de-tained on board the Schooner, after they had been demanded by Authority, greatly incenfed the People of the Town.—But it may be proper to obferve, that B. Smith, Esq; Commander of his Majesty's Ship Squirrel, (who, fince his Residence here, by a Conduct becoming the Spirit of a Gentleman of Honour and Generofity, has justly merited the Esteem of the Inhabitants) and the Captain of the Schooner, were absent, otherwise the Affair might probably have been amicably adjusted.—But it being apprehended that the Delinquents might make their Escape, Orders were fent over to Fort George to flop the Schooner, in case she should attempt going out of the Harbour.

Towards Evening she got under Sail, intending to come to under the Squirrel's Stern, who lay without the Fort, and was endeavouring to beat out, (the Wind being a-head) when the was hailed from the Fort, which the difregarded. Soon after the Gunner, pursuant to his Orders, fired a Shot; which being ineffectual, was repeated, to the Number of 8 or 10, none of which had any Effect, and the Schooner got safely moored under the Squirrel's Stern.

Capt. Smith has fince ordered the Men, who was the Cause of the above Disorder, to be delivered up, to be dealt with agreeable to Law.

The Night ensuing, about 12 o'Clock, the Town was alarmed by the Cry of Fire; but it proved to be nothing more than a Scheme contrived by some idle and inconsiderate Persons, thus to affright the Town, by that dismal Sound, in order to gratify their own wanton Fancies.

PROVIDENCE, July 7. A Gentleman in a neighbouring Province, writing his Correspondent in this Town on the Scourges we are to suffer (by the fate Acts of Parliament) from our MOTHER COUNTRY, in Recompence for that Loyalty and Obedience for which this Country, is so eminently distinguish'd, says, " Jealousy, that Bane of Society, has been the Cause of passing these Laws at Home; which will so embarrass Trade, that they will be under a Necessity to repeal what they have done in a few Years, but the Destruction will be dreadful till their Eyes are opened .- In Virginia they already feel it, Tobacco at Home, fetches little or hothing; most of their Bills are come back protested, and the Planters have no Money to pay with.—Tho' every one is convinced of the Necessity of Unanimity amongst the Colonies, to ward off any Burden that may be intended for us; yet no Steps are taken, and all complain, that they see with great Perspicuity, the Destruction that must befall us. I still flatter myfelf some fortunate Event will change the Face of Things, and relieve us from our Anxiety."

"The 27th Instant Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, and myself, with about 550 Indians arrived here, and were received on our Landing by upwards of 100 Caghnswogas, and others, whom he had sent forwards some Days 250. They drew up in Two Lines, and fired three Volleys, as a Salute; which was answered by the Indians who came up with Sir WILLIAM; after which, we encamped. We are to be joined this Day by 300 Indians of Oneids, Thicarora, and adjacent Villages; so that on Sir WILLIAM! String out for Niagara, there will be at least 900 Indians to mercompany the Troops; which, with 140 now at Niagara, and those who are expected to join us there, from the Upper Nations, will make a larger Body than has ever been known to take the field in our Favour.—A Party of Indians have brought in two Scalps from the Shawanese, and all our Indians express a great Defire to go against these People.—The Senecas have sent a great Number of English Prisoners, who are to be delivered to us on our Way to Niagara, agreeable to their late Eugagements."
